

DMG MORI USA Appoints New President

DMG MORI USA is pleased to announce the appointment of James V. Nudo as the new President of our organization as of December 7th, 2017. Mr. Nudo has been with our company for over 14 years and has served as Executive Officer of DMG MORI USA and Executive Officer of the International Legal Department and International Human Resources Department for DMG MORI CO. Ltd.

Mr. Nudo was part of the team that was responsible for implementing the DMG MORI joint venture from its inception through the present. Under his direction, we will continue to deliver the highest level of customer service and the latest machine tool technology through our direct sales approach.

Moving forward, our collective goal is to strengthen the stable foundation that we have built in the United States within the past years. We look forward to integrating Mr. Nudo's strategies for providing superior support to our valued customers while continuing to grow our existing relationships within the industry.

James V. Nudo, President, DMG MORI USA
